

Is a urologic problem making life uncomfortable, difficult or frustrating?

Incontinence, frequent urination, and other chronic problems can be painful, embarrassing, or even signs of much more serious conditions. But here's encouraging news: Life-changing new treatments at my clinic is bringing men and women easier, more effective solutions than ever before. so there's no need to be embarrassed, and every reason to seek help today

Don't let your problem disrupt or endanger your life.

See a urologist if you have:

- 1: Blood in Your Urine
- 2: Poor Bladder Control
- 3: Painful Urination
- 4: Pain in Your Side of Back.
- 5: Fallen Bladder Protrusion
- 6: Stone Problem
- 7: Plan for Renal Transplant
- 8: Overactive Bladder (OAB)
- 9: Chronic Urinary Tract Infection (UTI)
- 10: Enlarged Prostate
- 11: Pain in Groin Region, Lower Abdomen

KIDNEY STONES

BLADDER

PEDIATRIC UROLOGY

PROSTATE GLAND

URINARY SYSTEM

HOW to Plan a Visit

- * Understand Reason of Visit
- * Take Appointment 9819617474
- * Carry the list of Medication
- * Summarise- you want to Discuss.
- * Carry all Reports and Old Papers
- * Daily Bath is encouraged
- * Cleaning of Genitals is Advisable
- * Doctor don't consult Andrology Cases.
- * If you need to visit Washroom- Please inform Desk for any Test to performed
- * Voiding Test - Uroflow may be Performed
- * Avoid too many Attendants
- * Doctor may do some internal Examination
- * Please feel free to discuss with Doctor.
- * Follow Up are Charged and by Appointments.